This exhibit is vary different to that anticipated.
To the run upon the Bavings Banks is attributed the small increase in specie on hand. It was expected that an increase of a million at least would be shown. The great falling off in deposits shows an active demand for money. The contraction in circulation shows a determination to strengthen that department. The variation in discounts is of trifling importance. The effect of this statement cannot be otherwise than of an unfavorable character. be otherwise than of an unfavorable character.

SATURDAY, Dec. 23—5 P. M.

ARMER were unchanged.

BREADETHYS.—Flour was in more demand, and 12½c.

PRESENTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—AS CHRISTMAS and New Years are close at hand, and the seasons for gifts fast approaching, the subscriber would respectfully recommend his elegant stock of closks and furs to the present-giving public, as gifts in which both the useful and ornamental are combined. Having a rich assortment of velvet, satin and moire antique closks, made in the most fashionable style and of the very best material, he thinks he hazards nothing in saying they cannot be excelled in any of the larger eatablishments in the city. Among his furs may be found the sable, mink, stone marten, fitch and mountain marten, suported expressly for his establishment, and at prices to suit the present depression of the money market, and the means of all. As the Winter stock is fast disappearing, and preparations being made for the Spring and Summer trade, those desiring closks and furs would do well to call and examine his goods quickly, at his cloak and fur establishment, No. 47 Canal street, Brandreth Ballding, four doors from Broadway. Patients can depend on speedy and radical cure by applying at 333 Broome street, first bouse east of the Bowery for Heine is a member of the New York Medical Society THE Markield WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpanion, by Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, professor of discases of women; one hundredth edition, (500,000,) 12no. pp. 336, on fine paper, extra binding; price $1. Every complaint to which woman is subject, from girlhood to womanhood, and also as wife and as mother, are fully described, with the cause, the symptoms, and also the proper mode of treatment, in a plain, simple, but in the most chaste language, easily understood. And thus every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character and cause of her complaint, and be spared much anxiety and suffering. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explanations of many symptoms which otherwise would occasion much anxiety or alarm. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the formale system, which undermine the health, of the effect of which they are ignorant, and which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. How many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement! How many have difficult, if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are haranted during such time will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief. How many bitter moments, how mach anguish might have been spared to the sufferer, to the husband, to the relatives, by a timely peasession of the little volume? It is impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. For sale by Stringer & Townsend. 22 Broadway, Adriance, Sherman & Co. Astor House, No. I
